structured settlement brokers, and the insurer's claims department. Individual life products are distributed through MGAs and independent agents. The group is proactive in promoting MGA success through formulating a partnership with MGAs, helping them develop their own extensive individual business plan, which has resulted in the sale of higher premium policies. Managing group producers and managing general underwriters, many of whom were salaried group representatives, work with TPAs to market group life and accident and health products.
